

8th Finnish-Hungarian Seminar in Early Modern Philosophy at Heidelberg – Early Modern Philosophy and Post-Kantian Philosophy

Hegel-room, Philosophisches Seminar, University of Heidelberg
Schulgasse 6, 69117 Heidelberg

Sunday, 21 September

18:00 Optional and informal get-together, walk to the castle or Philosophenweg

Monday, 22 September

Early Modern Philosophy

9.45 Welcome

10:00 Domenica Romagni (Colorado State): Descartes on the Perception of Aesthetic Properties

11.30 Antonio S. Borge (Nottingham): Spinoza on the Distinction between Modes and Propria

14.00 Andrei Fomenko (UC Santa Barbara/Harvard): Hume's Notion of the Self in Book 2 of the Treatise

15.30 Elena Gordon (Jyväskylä): Macaulay, Sympathy, and Feminism

17.00 Karolina Hübner (Cornell): Spinoza on Consciousness

19.00 Dinner

Tuesday, 23 September

Early Modern Philosophy and Post-Kantian Philosophy – Influences and Interconnections

10.00 Jani Hakkarainen (Tampere): Wolff's Supertranscendental Conception of Ontology

11.30 Jason Yonover (Yale): Spinoza and Genealogy

14.00 Samuel Geiger (Vienna): Spinoza, Kant, and Schelling on freedom

15.30 Anton Kabeshkin (Potsdam): Hegel on the Concepts of Reality and God as the Supremely Real Being

17.00 Johannes Haag (Potsdam): Kant's Criticism of Hume in the Critique of the Power of Judgment

The conference is generously supported by DFG.